

I was shocked and disappointed to think that XM Radio might have a fight to continue its outstanding and refreshing service. Where else can you pick the period, the music, and your preference of newcasts, etc., all without commercials. I'm retired and living in the State of New Mexico where you often drive beyond the range of most stations and have to revert to the trusty tape player.

Please defend MX Radio for the sake of "Freedom of Choice".

Edward L. LaBane